60x60 CANADA

2008/09 COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

22 septembre 2008.

Vox Novus, en collaboration avec la Communauté Électroacoustique Canadienne (CEC), est heureux d'annoncer la première édition canadienne du projet 60x60.

60x60 est un projet annuel qui présente 60 œuvres de 60 compositeurs différents, chaque composition ayant une durée de 60 secondes ou moins. Depuis la création du projet en 2003, des œuvres issues des éditions « internationales » de 60x60 ont été l'objet de plus de 100 concerts, présentations multimédia, spectacles de danse et installations à travers le monde, sans parler des diffusions radio. À cinq reprises, certaines d'entre elles ont été choisies pour faire partie d'importantes compilations sur CD.

Une des fonctions importantes du projet 60x60, mise à part bien sûr la promotion de la musique nouvelle, est de faire connaître, à un vaste public tant canadien qu'international, des compositeurs talentueux quel que soit le stade de carrière auquel ils soient parvenus.

Un jury spécial, formé de Kevin Austin, Chantal Dumas, Katharine Norman, Eldad Tsabary et Robert Voisey, a monté, pour la saison 2008–2009, une programmation de concert d'œuvres du projet 60x60 « édition canadienne », dûes aux compositeurs suivants, par ordre alphabétique :

Les œuvres sélectionnées seront jouées lors de concerts déjà prévus à Montréal, Toronto, Halifax, Regina, Vancouver et Mexico au cours de la saison 2008–09. Tous les concerts seront annoncés sur la liste cec-conference et sur d'autres listes internationales.

60x60 — PRESS COMMENTS

With close to 100 audio and multimedia performances and radio airplay of its CD releases by stations around the world, the 60x60 Project has been enthusiastically discussed among composers, reviewers and artists since its inception in 2003.

Jonathan Schaefer and Frank J. Oteri talked it up on WNYC in 2005. New Music Box explored the 60x60 and short durational works in its magazine. Chris Pasles discussed the founder in the LA Times. Geeta Dayal dubbed the 60x60 experience “channel-surfing through contemporary music” in The Village Voice. Malcom Miller wondered whether it was ingenuity or madness in Music and Vision Daily. Anne Cammon broke the pop mold in Fly Global Music Culture by profiling the founder and Dennis Bathory-Kitsz raved about the genius of the 60x60 Project on WKCR.

“...le tout étant plus grand que la somme de ses parties, c’est vraiment le concept global qui retient l’attention.”

— Réjean Beaucage, “Nouveautés en bref” in Circuit 18/1 (2008).

The 60x60 series — concert-style listening events showcasing 60 contemporary electronic music compositions, each no longer than 60 seconds in duration, played in succession over one hour... [is a] tantalizing audio collage...

— Alexandra Jones, “Gone in 60 Minutes :Electronic Compositions Showcased at NC State University” in Classical Voice of North Carolina (1 October 2007).

... a musically eclectic mix of murmurs, melodies and motifs...

60 x 60, programmed an hour of new music, presenting 60 new works, each only 60 seconds long.

— Sophia Yan, “In Concert, 60 Times the Fun” in Oberlin Review (27 April 2007).

“60x60 showcases a wealth of brief, contemporary compositions. There are no live performances, so you can’t really call it a concert. Maybe it would better be described as a listening party. ... It’s like a Whitman’s sampler of the contemporary new music scene.”

— Greg Haymes, “Sound Sampler” in Times Union (9 February 2006).

“... The idea of commissioning sixty pieces each a minute long has elements of both ingenuity combined with madness. ... A minute can be ample time to express a whole gamut of imaginative sounds, or it can be a constraint which forces an artist to isolate what is the most important element of a work. The point of the project is that it enables an audience to take in and enjoy a cross section of different approaches to new music within a reasonable duration. And the purpose of Robert Voisey is to promote new music...”

— Malcolm Miller, “Ingenuity and madness?” in Music & Vision Daily (24 December 2005).

“If you get bored quickly or have A.D.D., 60x60 features 60 back-to-back pieces that are each under 60 seconds long, each by a different modern composer. 60-second abstract silent films accompany many of the works. [60x60 (2004) with Shimpei Takeda] ... It’s like channel surfing through experimental music — and it’s all over in an hour or less.”

— Geeta Dayal, Village Voice Vol. L No. 11 (16–22 March 2005).

“a fascinating project”
